

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1909.

NO. 54.

MCKINNEY.

Miss Cora Nunneley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Nunneley, of the Turnersville section, will attend school the coming term at Bourbon College.

Durham & Reynolds, threshermen, say they will about wind up threshing next week. The yield of wheat is reasonably good but the quality very poor, is the way they report it.

Mr. R. S. Scudder has returned from the fair with his string of horses and reports his success from the Springfield fair as follows: 23 shows, receiving 18 blue ties and three red ties.

Mr. Willie Lanham, 19, and Miss Lena Mays, 18, a young couple from Casey county, boarded No. 5 for Helenwood, Tenn., Sunday, at which place they were joined heart and hand.

Mr. Edwin Ward Wallis, who has a lucrative position with Curry, Tunis & Norwood, at Lexington, made a flying trip to McKinney to see Miss Catherine Murphy. Mr. McD. Fagle, of Yosemite, entertained a few friends during the Liberty fair.

R. H. Coleman, manager of the Columbia Singletree Co., on account of the increased demand for his output, has been compelled to run night and day to fill his orders, and being lighted up by electricity, it bears the resemblance of a city.

Everett Wallis, of Valley Oak, Casey county, after imbibing pretty freely on some of Danville's best bug juice and cutting a wide swath at that place, arrived at this place on No. 5 just in time to find W. J. Duncan awaiting to arrest him and taking him back on No. 6, they relieved him of $65 in cash.

Our officer, Mr. W. J. Duncan, we are proud to say, had the courage and backbone to come up last Sunday and tell the merchant, especially those selling intoxicating drinks under the head of soft drinks, to close their doors. We desire by this means to let the officers know we will stand back of them and hold up their hands in the discharge of their duty.

Quite a select crowd from here enjoyed a very pleasant hay ride to Stanford one night last week. Those who went were: Misses Grace Strawn, Alice Gooch, Lena Beck, Ruth Tanner, Archie Moore and Josephine Coleman. Messrs. Lynn Pyatt, Will Dayton, Montgomery Durham, Willie Murphy, Walter Murphy, Sam Beck, J. T. Gooch, Ray Murphy and Ray Tanner. After being shot at and falling over bridges, the crowd arrived home at midnight, all speaking of Mr. Varney Tanner's kindness while in the city at his drug store.

Miss Mary D. Beck is visiting Miss Nish Morford, at Ewing, and will go from there to Bourbon College, Paris, to attend school. Mrs. G. T. Ashlock, who has been in ill health for about eight weeks, we are proud to state is out again. Miss Ruth Tanner, the accomplished daughter of E. J. Tanner, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sam Burk, at Junction City. Miss Grace Strawn, of Columbia, Ind., is visiting friends here. F. M. Ware, who attended the Brodhead fair, came home complaining of catching considerable cold while there. Miss Mollie Goode, of Lexington, is visiting Miss Archie Moore at this place, and I judge from the admiration she has it will be a good while before the young people will give their consent for her to return.

MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. W. R. Hunt preached at Turkey Knob Sunday afternoon. Jesse Fogie and the writer took in the Sunday School convention at Olive Baptist church Sunday.

Willie Lanham and Miss Lena Mays eloped to Tennessee Sunday and were married. They took advantage of the prayer services at Carpenter Creek school house and slipped away from the old folks. The groom is a son of R. P. Lanham and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Mays, of the Kidds Store section.

It is said that several lads of this town planned to leave the parental roof Saturday night and try their fortunes in a country beyond the Ohio, but for some cause their plans did not materialize.

Q. R. Jones will give a fall entertainment at Oak Park Sept. 18, when a good time is expected. Mr. Jones tells us it will be somewhat of the nature of a fair. He will give several premiums on farm products and make it a sale day for mule colts. The Owens Brothers will furnish music and the youthfulness of the boys ought to be a drawing card.

The democratic county committee acted wisely in the selection of a county ticket. We have yet to hear a single objection to any one on the ticket. The republicans admit that a stronger ticket could not have been named, but claim they will be able to show it under. It might be well, however, for them to wait for the hatching before they count the chickens.

BRODHEAD.

Born, to the wife of Tilden Frith, a boy.

John Hamilton, of near Wildie, and Miss Lucy Rash, of Gum Sulphur, were married at the home of the bride, Rev. Gooch performing the ceremony.

For a long time the cry has been "too much wet weather," but now we need rain and need it badly. Of course some corn is already made, but lots of it needs rain yet.

The Sunday School convention to be held here next Sunday is being looked forward to with pleasure. The grove at the fair grounds will be used and a lengthy program has been arranged by Secretary Albright. A basket dinner will be spread and several good speakers and singers will be present, including J. C. McClary and wife, of Stanford.

School began here last Monday with Miss Ida May Adams, of Mt. Vernon, principal. The enrollment was 161. Miss Adams needs no introduction to our people as she has lived almost right among us all her life and we feel sure that with her assistants, Misses Emma Pennington and Carrie Frith and Mr. Jacob Elder, the school this year will be even better than before.

Miss Eliza Pike is visiting in Corbin. J. Thomas Cherry and wife attended the Somerset fair. Larkin Hicks and wife, of Bee Lick, were guests of W. F. Carter. Mrs. Tilman Gilpin and son, of St. Louis, are with relatives here. Dick Albright and Dr. O. O. Stone attended the hop at Mt. Vernon Monday night. Mrs. James Bradley, of the Sayers neighborhood, is very low with consumption. W. B. Middleton, of the Maretsburg section, is very ill. A little child of Jack Lunsford is very low with fever. Our physicians say there is a great deal of sickness in the county and they are kept going day and night.

While we are throwing bouquets at some of our friends and neighbors, we will not confine them to Brodhead, but will scatter them over the borders of the county. Our aim this time is at J. E. Woodall, of Livingston, better known as "Ed." Mr. Woodall is 37 years old, was born and reared in Laurel county on a farm. At the age of 18 he entered the service of the L. & N. as a section hand, but was soon promoted to foreman, and on account of close attention to business was made a supervisor, in which capacity he worked for a number of years. Finally tiring of railroad work, especially the Sunday work, he accepted a position with Kellogg & Co., furniture dealers, of Richmond, Ky., in which work he is now engaged. At the age of 21 Mr. Woodall married Miss Lucy E. Daniels, of Mt. Vernon. They have no family. Both are devout members of the Baptist church and are loyal Sunday school workers. Mrs. Woodall has on several occasions been appointed to represent the Baptist Orphans' Home, of Louisville, at the annual meets of the Rockcastle Baptist Associations. Mr. Woodall is one of the deacons in the Livingston Baptist church. Not meaning to flatter him at all, but we recently heard it said of him: "He is first-class in every respect." Ed is a red hot democrat and a subscriber to the I. J.

The Rockcastle County Association of Baptist Churches will meet at Brodhead on Tuesday, Sept. 7, and continue three days. The first day will be devoted to the work of the Sunday school. A report and messengers from every Sunday School in the county is very much desired. A. E. Albright, secy., Rev. Wm. Williams, pres.

At a meeting of the district board of the Burley Tobacco Society at Winchester it was charged that the National Society of Equity had violated the peace pact and that President Drayton had raised its demands from $10,000 to $30,000 in consideration of its support of the Burley pool. Congressman Cantrell, president of the State Equity Society, and his board were said to be keeping the faith.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, of Brooklyn, who in July, 1907, departed in search of the North Pole and who had not been heard from for over a year, startled the civilized world with a telegram from Lewis, in the Shetland Islands, announcing that he reached the Pole April 21, 1908. Dr. Cook is returning on the steamer Hans Egede, due at Copenhagen Saturday. In his final dash for the pole Dr. Cook was not accompanied by a white man, four Eskimaux being his only companions. The news of his success is generally credited.

At the harmony banquet given to Senator Bradley at the Seelbach the other night, Toastmaster E. C. O'Rear read a number of "wireless" telegrams from prominent men not present. This alleged to be from Gov. Willson is a sample and a very laughable one: "Sorry I can't be with you. Don't go out at night any more. Have stopped night riding." As he prides himself that he has stopped night riders in their mad career, the point of this is peculiarly patent.

THE question "what is whisky?" has been agitating the government experts for several months, but the answer has not been published. A British expert says: "Whisky is a spirit obtained from distillation from a mash of cereal grains saccharified by a diastase of malt." Why not let it go at that and add: That it is responsible for more headaches, crimes and sorrow than any thing ever invented. Look not upon it when red or any other color.

THE Eminence man who contracted an "affinity" marriage recently, which slipped a cog when the woman turned up in New York and gave an interview that it was only a trial marriage, of which she had repented, has taken to himself a third spouse, after legally freeing himself from the consequences of the second venture. Some men do not profit by experience, but persist in running their heads into a hornet's nest.

THE Jeffersonian barbecue at Louisville Tuesday and Wednesday was a big affair. Democratic oratory was on tap and burgoo and other good things flowed freely. Our Congressman, Hon. Harvey Helm, was one of the orators, and his speech was a gem. Hundreds of democrats enjoyed the barbecue and went home determined to work harder for the success of the party.

OUR brother, Mr. W. P. Walton, could not stay out of the harness long. He is not built that way. On Wednesday he assumed control of the Lexington Gazette and from now hence his editorials will be the feature of that paper. The Gazette is an afternoon paper and one of the very best publications in the State.

IF Christ had come some of the newspapers would not make as much ado as they do over the return of Harriman to the United States, notwithstanding Roosevelt dubbed him an undesirable citizen.

THE Louisville Herald refers to the sanguinary soul of Gen. P. P. Johnson. The writer should have a care. The general broke his best cane over an editor's head recently for a much less offense.

THAT good paper, the London Democrat, John Pearl editor, has just rounded out its first year. May it live and prosper forever, and its clever promoter never die.

THE Courier-Journal printed Hon. Harvey Helm's speech made at the Jefferson Barbecue Tuesday and it is mighty good reading.

A contest has been filed by John L. Wells against W. H. Jones, who received the certificate of nomination for county judge at the recent republican primary in Laurel.

POLITICAL.

Dan Borden, democratic county clerk of Pulaski, has resigned on account of ill health and Judge Barnett has appointed his son, M. H. Barnett, to succeed him.

Lawrence B. Finn, of Franklin, was nominated at the democratic convention at Owensboro for railroad commissioner to succeed the late McD. Ferguson.

In two weeks President Taft will leave Beverly on what will prove to be in many ways a record-breaking presidential tour. The president's first stop will be in Boston the evening of Sept. 14, where he will be the guest of honor at a big banquet given by the Boston Chamber of Commerce. The following morning he will start a 13,000-mile journey back to Washington.

Indications from returns in the republican primary in Whitley county are that the county judge's race is very close between B. F. Rose and J. C. Lovitt, with chances in favor of Lovitt. J. C. Bird was nominated for County Attorney; Jonathan Stanfill, Clerk; C. W. Renfro, Sheriff; Matt Morgan, Jailor; Frank Davis, Superintendent of Public Instruction; A. J. Silcox, Assessor; L. P. Lay, no opposition for Circuit Clerk. It is estimated that $25,000 was spent in the election.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee at Louisville Wednesday the action of the governing committee at Lexington was revoked and a new order of party management in Kentucky was put into effect. At the Lexington meeting Thomas A. Combs was made chairman of the Campaign Committee and Campaign Committee was named. The resolution adopted is as follows: Be it resolved by the Democratic State Central Committee, that the following named gentlemen be and are hereby designated and appointed to conduct the State campaign for the year 1909: Henry R. Prewitt, Thomas A. Combs, Allie W. Young, Ollie M. James, Wm. Addams, J. A. Sullivan, W. A. Berry, J. C. C. Mayo, Ben Johnson.

This and That.

The loss of life from flood along the Santa Catalina River and other streams in the vicinity of Monterey, Mex., is now estimated at over 3,000. Many small villages were totally wiped out.

A work train ran into a double-headed freight train between Kiddlesburg and Saxton, Pa., on the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad. Three men were killed and two others were seriously scalded.

The new battleship Michigan was officially turned over to the United States Government by its builders. The latest acquisition to the United States fighting force is of the Dreadnought class and one of the largest battleships afloat.

James Littrall, aged eight years, shot and killed his six-year old sister, Gertrude, at Nicholasville. The weapon used was a double-barreled shot gun, which the boy did not know was loaded, and picked up to play with. The top of the little girl's head was blown off and her brains scattered over the room.

Just over the State line, South of Somerset, Deputy Sheriff W. L. West was shot by Ewell Phillips, the ball passing entirely through his body, resulting in almost instant death. Phillips surrendered himself to the authorities, but would not discuss the shooting. There had been bad feeling between the two men for quite a while.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or Grippe with "Preventics" means sure defeat for Pneumonia. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but taken early—at the sneeze stage—they break or head off these early colds. That's surely better. That's why they are called Preventics. Preventics are little Candy Cold Cures. No Quinine, no physic, nothing sickening. Nice for the children—and thoroughly safe too. If you feel chilly, if you sneeze, if you ache all over, think of Preventics. Promptness may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your child, if there's feverishness, night-crying, or even probably the Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 10c boxes for the pocket, also in 25c boxes of 48 Preventics. WE failed to mention the fact at the time that Clyde Curtis' buggy horse won first at the Brodhead fair the last day. Mr. Curtis is proud of his good horse's achievement and wants the world to know that he is a winner any where you put him.

THE juvenile fair was a howling success. Almost as many people were there as at the big fair the first day and enthusiasm ran higher. All of the rings were hotly contested but the warmest was the stick horse ring which was won by Carl Hunn on his famous racer, Walter. Morgan Smith Baughman won probably more ties than any of the contestants. James Cooper made a fine president, while Spalding Hill as secretary and Claiborne Walton as ring master were the best ever. Emil Greenburg furnished the music. The juvenile fair was the happy movement of Messdames G. G. Perry and J. N. Saunders and the youngsters are under many obligations to them for pushing the enterprise to a successful end. Some $30 was taken in at the gate. Dr. Perry has the thanks of the "association" for the use of the grounds free of charge.

THE democrats of Pulaski made no mistake when they nominated Mr. Jas. M. Roberts for sheriff. He is one of the best citizens of that county and is liked by everybody. It is predicted that he will easily defeat his republican opponent, Mr. Weddle.

COL. W. P. WALTON, former editor of the Frankfort State Journal, and at present in business in this city, returned to Lexington with his family from Atlantic City where he had been spending a delightful two weeks. Col. Walton was in his office Friday morning meeting many friends. He reports a splendid vacation and a fine time at the beach, but the return trip, he says, was extremely wearing.—Lexington Herald.

WE learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. George C. Keller, Sr., at Harrodsburg. Deceased was 75 years old and a fine old gentleman. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. S. P. McDowell, of Danville, and two sons, Mr. George C. Keller, Jr., formerly of this office, but now residing at Orlando, Fla., and Mr. Henry Keller, of Harrodsburg. Mr. Keller was a devout member of the Methodist church and an excellent man. For many years he had filled a responsible position in the First National Bank of his city.

THE trustees of the Stanford Graded School closed a deal Tuesday with Clark & Brown, the Danville plumbers, for a system of steam heating, which will be placed in the school building at once. It will not interfere with the school, which will begin Monday morning, next. The system will cost about $1,800 and will be ready for use within six weeks. We think the trustees acted wisely and believe with them that it will be a saving of money in the long run. It will take less than a third of the coal the eight stoves did, the heat will be more regular and it will mean more room for school work.

AT their country home on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, Mrs. Annie Harris Engleman and daughter, Miss Sue Taylor Engleman, charmingly entertained at "progressive euchre" in honor of Mrs. Charles J. Kitchen, Jr., of Ashland. There were 30 or more guests present and the occasion was a most pleasant one for all who had the pleasure of being present. The first prize, a cut glass dish, was won by Mrs. S. D. Bartley; the second prize, a 500 deck of cards, was won by Mrs. Eliza Harris, and in cutting for the consolation prize, a pound of candy, Mrs. E. T. Pence, Jr., came out victorious. Mrs. S. J. Embury, Jr., presided at the frappe bowl and served the guests in her usual charming manner. Ice and cakes, elegantly prepared, were served and those fortunate to be present were loud in their praise for the delightful hours afforded them by the hostesses and guest of honor.

LOST, black rat terrier. Tip of tail cut off. Responds to Trixie. Liberal reward. J. Henry Hankla, Junction City.

SINGLETON.—Miss Alice Singleton, aged about 40, died at Waynesburg of a complication of troubles Tuesday. She was a sister of Mr. H. H. Singleton and a mighty good woman.

THE Kentucky League of postmasters will meet in Louisville Sept. 14 and 15. All of the Kentucky P. M.'s are expected to be present. The League's motto is "Proficiency," and our postmaster, who is a member, is entitled to all the good coming because he is proficient.

THE king bolt of John B. Camenisch's milk wagon broke Tuesday morning and the horse took out at a break-neck speed with the two front wheels. In front of John Owsley Reid's Garage the runaway came in contact with a buggy occupied by Miss Jennie Newland and a wheel was smashed for her.

GOOD SELECTIONS.—Mr. B. W. Givens has been selected as chairman of the democratic campaign committee and Attorney Thos. H. Shanks, secretary and treasurer. Both gentlemen are capable and well fitted for the management of the county campaign this fall. Chairman Givens will announce an advisory committee later to act in conjunction with him and Mr. Shanks.

PUBLIC SALE!

OF

Farm, Live Stock and Farming Implements.

On account of a change in business of my sons and myself, which is my reason for selling, I will offer at public auction on the premises on at 10 o'clock A. M., my fine blue grass farm, containing 73 acres to be surveyed, to purchaser, located five miles east of Harrodsburg, three miles north of Burgin and two miles west of Shakerstown, on the Chatham pike, adjoining the Lexington pike. This is one of the finest agricultural and stock farms in Kentucky. It is probably the best watered place in the blue grass country, every field on the place being abundantly supplied with never-failing water. The place is fertile and superior for the cultivation of tobacco, hemp, corn and wheat. The farm is equipped for tobacco raising with two big barns. The stock barn is second to none. 100 acres are in blue grass and the remainder is in a high state of cultivation. The dwelling contains eight large rooms, large veranda and is surrounded by all necessary outbuildings. Terms: One-third cash and the remainder in one, two, three and four years with 6 per cent interest, payable annually, from date of deed. Will sell at same time and place the following: Six head of big mare mules; 60 cattle; 60 hogs; Jersey cattle, two sweetsteaks; besides farming machinery, such as binders, mowers, wagons, plows, harness and many other things too numerous to mention. Terms on personal property: On all sums of $5 and under, cash; over that amount a four months' negotiable note without interest. Burgoon on the ground, and plenty of it.
